

Job Title: Marketing Intern

Job Grade: Temporary Part-Time Intern – Non-Exempt

Reports To: President, CEO.

Job Overview: This position will aid in the development of technologies for the pork industry. SwineTech, Inc. develops technologies that create a more stable, sustainable, and transparent livestock industry.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Support the operations team
- Participate in operation meetings
- Perform market research on ideal countries
- Assist in managing communications with outsourced translations partners
- Assist in generating documents for potential distributor partners
- Generate process documents for critical supply chain functions
- Other duties and projects as assigned

Education: Current undergraduate or graduate student pursuing a degree in related field.

Experience: Experience with Microsoft Office products

Physical and Working Environment:

- Working Hours: General office hours, typically 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM
- Weekly Hours: ~20 hours per week
- Working Environment: Work usually performed in an office setting
- Tools and Equipment Used: Computer, tablet, e-mail, phone, and other standard office equipment
- Location: Hybrid of remote/in person

To apply: Please send your resume and cover letter to jayne-meacham@uiowa.edu. All resumes and cover letters will be screened to ensure they meet the minimum requirements before being forwarded to the SwineTech Inc. office.

Note: You will want to address your cover letter to the company.